Kidz Love Soccer continued >

* We love our parents, but...with your child's best interest in mind, we ask that parents not remain in the gym after the class begins. Our instructors have found that the quality of instruction is often affected by parent and sibling distractions and interruptions. We feel it is most beneficial for children to have the recreational time with their peers. Also, in order to provide the best learning environment, children must be toilet-trained. Thank you for your cooperation.

* We love our parents, but...with your child's best interest in mind, we ask that parents not remain in the gym after the class begins. Our instructors have found that the quality of instruction is often affected by parent and sibling distractions and interruptions. We feel it is most beneficial for children to have the recreational time with their peers. Also, in order to provide the best learning environment, children must be toilet-trained. Thank you for your cooperation.

Ramon Romero & Cuerdas de Fuego

Sounds of South America

October 14, 2006

Experience the musical diversity of South America. Paraguayan harp virtuoso Ramon Romero returns to Sunnyvale with Cuerdas de Fuego, Strings of Fire, to dazzle you with traditional songs from their home continent: melodic Guaranias and lively Polkas from Paraguay; dramatic Tangos and rustic Chacareras from Argentina; flirtatious Cuecas from Chile; soulful Boleros from Brazil; waltz-like Joropos from Venezuela and much, much more. Romero wows audiences as his fingers fly on the strings, making a single harp sound like a trio of flamenco guitars.

Patrick Ball

The Christmas Rose
December 16, 2006

Celebrate the season with perennial audience favorite, Celtic harper and storyteller Patrick Ball. For the first-time ever, this modern-day bard shares his magical holiday show, The Christmas Rose, with Sunnyvale audiences. The evening's tales include Dylan Thomas' A Child's Christmas in Wales and passages from the work of William Shakespeare, William Butler Yates and Thomas Hardy. Patrick strings these together with a bright garland of traditional carols from merry old England and other places, giving them all a Celtic twinkle with his rare wire-strung harp.

The Weepies

Say I Am You
November 25, 2006

Remember what it feels like to fall in love? Singer-songwriters Deb Talan and Steve Tannen do. The night these successful solo artists met in a Boston club and discovered they were fans of each other's work, they stayed up all night, writing songs together over a bottle of wine and single acoustic guitar. Now four years later, they are The Weepies, a fast-rising folk-pop duo, whose sentimental, melodic tunes like "World Spins Madly On," heard recently on television (Scrubs) and movie soundtracks (Friends with Money), have topped iTunes' folk charts.
